

Table of Contents

	Page
Illustration, "The Furlough," by Pvt. William Breck, 107th Inf.....	2
On the Good Old Pea and Hen, by Pvt. Richard E. Connell, Co. A, M. P.....	3
The Things You Did in Civil Life, Poem, by Pvt. Chas. Divine, Ambulance Co. 108	3
Editorials, by "F." and Pvt. Wm. A. Shea, 105th Inf.....	4
The Incinerator, by Lt. Edward Streeter, 52nd Brigade Hdqtrs.....	5
Outside Influence Won't Help in the Army, by Major General O'Ryan.....	6
The Ideas of Ethelburt Jellyback, V, by Pvt. Charles Divine, Ambulance Co. 108.	7
Illustrated by Dick J. Kennedy, 102nd Supply Train.
The Furlough that Went Flooey, by Pvt. Walter A. Davenport, 107th Inf.....	8
Illustration by Dick J. Kennedy.....	8
The Wearing of the Blue, by Pvt. Walter A. Davenport, 107th Inf.....	9
Night in Carolina, Poem, by D. Stanley Beattie, 105th Inf.....	9
News from Division Units.....	10
Illustration, by Dick J. Kennedy.....	11
"An Aged Lady" Writes to The Gas Attack	12
News from Division Units, Continued.....	13
News of the Y. M. C. A.....	14
Camp Sports, Edited by Pvt. Fred J. Ashley, Headquarters Troop.....	16
News from Division Units, continued.....	18
Drafted, Poem, by H. E. S.....	22
Girls Knit Their Nerves Into Knots.....	23
News from Division Units, continued.....	24
A Friend, by J. W. B.....	25
My Sweetheart, Poem, by Pvt. Howard A. Herty, Co. A, M. P.....	25
River Song, Poem, by Albert F. Smith, Base Hospital.....	27
World Brevities, edited by J. S. Kingsley.....	28
Sports, continued.....	30
Illustration, by Dick J. Kennedy.....	31
Announcement of the Nut Number.....	32

The editors call your attention to the advertisement on page 32, and invite you to contribute to the Nut Number that will appear on January 26th—weather permitting. Send in your nuts and make the party complete. Every Company has its Nut. Write us a sketch about yours—as a weird tale or a fantastic narrative. And send it in early.