

Richter rebounds at Garden

By KEN RAPPOPORT
AP Hockey Writer

NEW YORK — Goaltender Mike Richter hasn't been at his best in Madison Square Garden this season.

So Sunday night's 3-2 victory for the New York Rangers over the Toronto Maple Leafs felt somewhat like a comeback at home.

"I was pleased with the way it went," Richter said after making 34 saves, including a game-saver on a breakaway by Doug Gilmour in the second period.

"I knew I had to be more stable, not overplay the puck and be more patient. That was really important tonight."

Richter had struggled earlier this season at the Garden while losing two of three games. Except for a 2-0 shutout in Toronto, he had generally not been up to the form that took the Rangers to the Stanley Cup in 1994.

In his last home game, Richter had been booed by the fans.

"I've gotten a lot of suggestions from the fans (about his early season slump), some of which I can't repeat. They've got a right to boo. They just want us to win."

Flyers 5, Senators 2

PHILADELPHIA — John LeClair had a goal and two assists while Garth Snow, who was acquired from Colorado in the offseason for two 1996 draft picks, recorded the win in his first Philadelphia start and just his eighth in the NHL. The 26-year-old goalie recorded his last win April 2, also against Ottawa.

beat St. Louis for the seventh straight time.

Joe Reekie and Sergei Gonchar scored goals in a second-period span of 1:33 to break a scoreless tie and Steve Konowalchuk added his third goal in as many games in the third period as the Capitals won their third straight despite getting outshot 32-23.

Mighty Ducks 7, Flames 2

ANAHEIM, Calif. — Anaheim got two goals from Paul Kariya, Peter Douris and Shaun Van Allen en route to a five-goal lead in the first period.

The Ducks had lost six of their last seven games coming in, but set a franchise record with their five-goal outburst in the opening period.

Blackhawks 6, Sabres 3

CHICAGO — Jeremy Roenick scored a shorthanded goal with less than a second left in the second period Sunday night, igniting Chicago.

SPORTS IN BRIEF

Mayfair maintains even keel for Tour win

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — By the time the wind and slick greens of Southern Hills finally caught up with Billy Mayfair at the Tour Championship, he had a big enough lead to hold on Sunday for the biggest payoff of the year.

Mayfair won the $3 million season-ending tournament by shooting a 3-over 73, giving him an even-par total of 280 over a course that yielded just one round below par Sunday and only 14 subpar rounds for the entire tournament.

His three-stroke victory gave him $540,000. He finished second on the money list with $1,543,192, about $111,000 behind Greg Norman.

It was the first time even-par or worse had won a 72-hole PGA Tour event since 1981, when Bruce Lietzke won the Byron Nelson Classic at 1-over 281.

Mallon leads U.S. rally past Japanese golfers

INA, Japan (AP) — Meg Mallon fired a 7-under-par 65, helping players from the LPGA come from behind for a 19-17 victory Sunday over the Japanese counterparts in the Nichirei International LPGA golf tournament.

By outscoring the Japanese 13½-4½ in the final day's single matches, the LPGA posted its 11th consecutive victory and 15th overall against only two losses since 1979.

The Japanese had led 12½-5½ after the first two rounds, all pairs matches. Each of the 18 LPGA players received $22,000 and each Japanese $12,375.

Charles rallies to playoff win in Hawaii

KAANAPALI, Hawaii (AP) — Bob Charles made a 12-foot birdie putt on the third playoff hole Sunday to beat Dave Stockton and capture the $600,000 Kaanapali Seniors Classic.

The New Zealander started the final round of the 54-hole event in a six-way tie for fifth place, but moved quickly up the leader board. He made the turn in 3-under-par 33 and played the back nine over the windswept Kaanapali North Course on the island of Maui at par-36 to force the playoff with Stockton, who had to make a comeback of his own.

Charles, who earned $90,000, and Stockton, the tour's money leader, finished regulation at 9-under 204.

Rudd captures race; Gordon nears points title

PHOENIX (AP) — Ricky Rudd won the race Sunday and Dale Earnhardt barely kept alive his Winston Cup championship battle with Jeff Gordon in the Dura-Lube 500k at Phoenix International Raceway.

While Rudd was earning his 16th career victory and extending his string of seasons with at least one win to 13 in a row, Earnhardt was cutting into Gordon's point lead for the third straight race, slicing the margin to 147 with only the season-finale Nov. 12 at Atlanta remaining.

Gordon would need only to finish anywhere except last at Atlanta to win the title, even if Earnhardt wins the race and gets the five-point bonus for leading the most laps.

Gordon, 24, could become the second youngest champion. Bill Rexford won in 1950 at age 23.

Schumacher ties Formula One record with Japan win

SUZUKA, Japan (AP) — There was no beating Michael Schumacher or denying him a share of history no matter what they tried Sunday in the Japanese Grand Prix.

Jean Alesi jumped the gun at the start. Damon Hill tried to speed around a tricky corner. Both moves were doomed.

One by one, the Schumacher's rivals found themselves slipping in the rain, tumbling through the sand and waving helplessly for the mechanics. But the German raced flawlessly to his ninth victory this season, tying Nigel Mansell's 1992 Formula One record.

He can break the record next month in the season finale, the Australian Grand Prix.

World Series ratings remain down slightly

NEW YORK — The final game of the World Series got a preliminary overnight rating of 19.8, down 2 percent from the overnights two years ago.

Saturday night's game got a 34 share on the overnights, Nielsen Media Research said Sunday, identical to the share on the overnights two years ago for Game 6 between Toronto and Philadelphia.

Part of the reason for the decline is an earlier start time. Atlanta's 1-0 victory over Cleveland began at around 7:30 p.m. EDT, an hour earlier than World Series games had started in recent years, cher, two days after Maddux did not close it out at Cleveland.

"He was outstanding," Maddux said. "That's the best game I've ever seen him pitch."

"He went through a lot, especially early in the season. One thing about him is he's got a huge heart and he showed it tonight. I'm real happy for him."

Glavine began the season as a target of boos because of his outspoken work during the strike as the Braves' player representative. But he had the home fans cheering at the end, as did David Justice, who homered in the sixth inning.

After the eighth, Glavine went to manager Bobby Cox and said he was done. That left it up to Wohlers, who retired Kenny Lofton, Omar Vizquel and Baerga in order for his second save of the Series.

While the consistency of the rotation has been the backbone of the staff for years, the bullpen was the biggest problem in postseason past. Jeff Reardon, Jim Clancy, Charlie Leibrandt and others were among those who could not hold late leads, a major reason why the Braves lost the World Series in 1991 and 1992 and fell in the 1993 NL playoffs.

But Wohlers, with his 100 mph fastball enhanced by a new-found confidence, became the closer despite getting outshot 32-23.
